Professor Lindenbrock is reading some stories from Iceland that are over a thousand years old. He reads something written in code. He does find out what the code reads in Latin, but it still makes no sense. His nephew Axel discovers what the code says, and tells the professor. The message talks about a passage to the center of the Earth. The passage begins in the crater of a mountain in Iceland called the Snow Mountain Glacier.

- B.
Professor Lindenbrock and Axel travel to Iceland. As they go deeper and deeper under the surface of the earth they have many scary things happen to them. They also see some wonderful and unusual things. They find themselves in a huge cavern that is lit by a strange electric gas. They find ancient trees and mushrooms that are much taller than While beneath the center of the Earth, they
