

Unit 1 Time*Listening 1 p.8

Stan: What time is it, Carol?

Carol: It's 1:30.

Stan: I have to be home at 2.

Carol: I think you should go now.

Stan: You're right. I don't want to be late.

Carol: Goodbye. I'll see you tomorrow, Stan.

Listening 2 p.9

Angela: Bob, I really want to see that new movie.

Bob: The action hero movie, Angela?

Angela: Yes. Do you know when it starts?

Bob: It starts at 1 o'clock, 3 o'clock, and 5 o'clock.

Angela: We're too late now for the 1 o'clock movie.

Bob: Let's go to the 3 o'clock movie then.

Unit 2 Place*Listening 1 p.16

Wendy: Do you know where Mom keeps the pencils, Nick?

Nick: They're in the top drawer in the kitchen, Wendy.

Wendy: No they aren't. I looked there.

Nick: Oh I know! They are in a can above the sink.

Wendy: I don't see it.

Nick: It's behind that large orange bowl.

Listening 2 p.17

We put things in special places. Then we know where they are. Socks go in one drawer. Shirts go in another drawer. Soap and shampoo go in the bathroom. Shoes go in the closet. Flashlights go under the kitchen sink. This is to find them when you need them. Don't put things anywhere you want. Put your things in a special place.

Unit 3 Weather*Listening 1 p.24

Annie: Gosh, Bobby, it's raining a lot!

Bobby: I know, Annie. We can't even go out and play.

Annie: I wish it would snow. We could build a snowman.

Bobby: That would be fun, but it's not cold enough.

Annie: My dad says some places really need rain.

Bobby: I guess we're lucky with the weather we have.

Listening 2 p.25

Here is today's weather report. It's raining in Oregon. A storm is moving east. It will be in Colorado tomorrow. Then there will be snow. It's cold on the East Coast. It is snowing in New York City. It is snowing in Washington D.C., too. It's nice and warm in Atlanta. It's even warmer with lots of sunshine in Florida.

Unit 4 Feelings*Listening 1 p.32

Lisa: Hi, Jimmy. Julia looks so unhappy these days.

Jimmy: I know, Lisa. I saw her yesterday.

Lisa: She smiled to me, but her eyes looked sad. Something must worry her, Jimmy.

Jimmy: There she is now.

Lisa: Let's say hello to her.

Listening 2 p.33

My grandfather was reading a book. As he read he became more and more unhappy. You could see it in his face. Grandfather smiles a lot. But while reading the book he did not smile. The more he read the more unhappy he got. But as he read the last page he began to smile. Tears came to his eyes. They were tears of joy.

Unit 5    Transportation*Listening 1    p.40

Sandy: How do you get from one place to another, Bob?

Bob: I walk or ride in a car, Sandy. I can take a plane, a train or a boat, too.

Sandy: How about taking a hot air balloon?

Bob: You won't know where you will land.

Sandy: Still, it will be fun.

Listening 2    p.41

Luke: Where do you usually go on vacation, Amy?

Amy: We go to Hawaii, Luke.

Luke: Hawaii! Wow! How do you go there?

Amy: We go by airplane.

Luke: Do you stay there very long?

Unit 6    Vacation*Listening 1    p.48

Carol: Hi, Jimmy. We're going to the water park on our vacation.

Jimmy: Hi, Carol. How exciting!

Carol: Yeah, I can't wait.

Jimmy: What kind of rides are there?

Carol: There are slides that spin you around.

Jimmy: How fun! Can I come, too?

Listening 2    p.49

June: Hi, Amy. Mom says your family is taking a long vacation.

Amy: Yes, June. We're leaving this weekend.

June: Mom said you're going to California.

Amy: That's right. It's sunny and warm there.

June: Are you going to Disneyland?

Amy: Oh sure, but there are other fun places, too.

Unit 7 Jobs*Listening 1 p.56

- Earl: What kind of a job would you like, Katy?
- Katy: I want to work on a newspaper, Earl.
- Earl: Isn't that a desk job?
- Katy: Not really. I want to work as a sports reporter. How about you?
- Earl: I want to work on computers.
- Katy: That sounds fun.

Listening 2 p.57

- Bob: Hi, Susan. I want to work at the museum. I need some help.
- Susan: What would you be doing, Bob?
- Bob: I want to work with dinosaurs.
- Susan: What do you know about dinosaurs?
- Bob: I know a lot. That's not the problem.
- Susan: What can I do?
- Bob: I have to tell them why I should get the job. I don't know what to say.

Unit 8 Sports*Listening 1 p.64

- Matt: Do you play soccer, Amy?
- Amy: Yes, Matt. I play for our school team.
- Matt: I hear your team is pretty good.
- Amy: We've won 5 of our first 6 games.
- Matt: How many goals have you scored?
- Amy: Not many. I have scored just 2 goals.

Listening 2 p.65

- Fred: Hello. Who is this?
- Carol: Hi, Fred, this is Carol.
- Fred: Hi, Carol. What's new?
- Carol: Do you want to go to the soccer match with me Sunday?
- Fred: I'll be happy to come.
- Carol: Great. See you Sunday, then. Bye.

Unit 9 Food*Listening 1 p.72

- Mary: Joan, do you like fruits and veggies?
- Joan: I don't care much for vegetables, Mary.
- Mary: I'd be happy if I only had fresh fruit to eat.
- Joan: I'd rather have pizza and hamburger.
- Mary: Those aren't very good for you, Joan.
- Joan: I know. I should eat something better.

Listening 2 p.73

Fruits and veggies taste good. They are full of vitamins and minerals. Vegetables help us grow big and strong. Fruits keep us healthy. Fruits and vegetables keep us from getting sick. They give us what our body needs. A glass of fruit juice for breakfast is good, too. It makes you feel good.

Unit 10 Animals*Listening 1 p.80

- John: What do you know about dinosaurs, Katy?
- Katy: A little bit, John. We learned about them in school.
- John: They must be scary to be around.
- Katy: People weren't around when dinosaurs were alive.
- John: I guess the dinosaurs would have eaten the people.
- Katy: Some would have. Some dinosaurs ate only plants.

Listening 2 p.81

Dinosaurs lived millions of years ago. They lived before there were humans. But now they're gone. No one knows why. Some were very large. T-Rex was as large as a school bus. It stood 6 meters high. There were even bigger dinosaurs. There were very small ones, too. Some were as small as a little dog. Some dinosaurs could run very fast. Others could fly. And some had feathers.

Unit 11 Culture*Listening 1 p.88

Mark: Hi Jane, we're learning about Indians in school.
Jane: American Indians, Mark?
Mark: Yes. Their culture is very different.
Jane: How is it different?
Mark: They believe that birds and animals are their friends.
Jane: What about things like trees and rocks?
Mark: Indians believe most things in the world are their friends.

Listening 2 p.89

Jennifer: In school we're reading about the Chinese people, Jerry.
Jerry: We are too, Jennifer.
Jennifer: I've read that families in China should only have one child.
Jerry: Really? That's kind of sad.
Jennifer: Long ago Chinese families could be large.
Jerry: I wonder why they changed?
Jennifer: It's because there are too many people in China.

Unit 12 Space*Listening 1 p.96

Stan: Do you believe in UFOs, Emily?
Emily: No. I think people just make up stories about them, Stan.
Stan: They might be real. I've seen pictures of them.
Emily: I have, too. But they never show what a UFO really looks like.
Stan: A man I know says he was in a spaceship.
Emily: I know him. People say he is crazy.

Listening 2 p.97

A guy is walking home. He sees a bright light in the sky. Then He sees a spaceship. It looks like a large dish. He is scared. He calls police on his cell. A policeman arrives and the man describes what he saw to the policeman.
